

Contents

Notes on contributors	vii
Foreword by Josef Kreiner	ix
Preface and acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction: into the night and the world of sleep	1
BRIGITTE STEGER AND LODEWIJK BRUNT
2 Sleeping time in early Chinese literature	24
ANTJE RICHTER
3 Discourse of mid-day napping: a political windsock in contemporary China	45
LI YI
4 Negotiating sleep patterns in Japan	65
BRIGITTE STEGER
5 Sleep without a home: the embedment of sleep in the lives of the rough-sleeping homeless in Amsterdam	87
PETER RENSEN
6 Sleep and night-time combat in contemporary armed forces: technology, knowledge and the enhancement of the soldier's body	108
EYAL BEN-ARI

vi	Contents
7	'The Mirk Shades O'Nicht': nocturnal representations of urban Scotland in the nineteenth century	127
	IRENE MAVER
8	Night-time and deviant behaviour: the changing night scene of Japanese youth	149
	AYUKAWA JUN
9	Between day and night: urban time schedules in Bombay and other cities	171
	LODEWIJK BRUNT
10	'What Time Do You Call This?': change and continuity in the politics of the city night	191
	CHRIS NOTTINGHAM
	Index	215